CALL FOR PAPERS

The Journal of the South East Asia Research Centre for Communication and Humanities

Aims & Scope

The Journal seeks to attract readers and contributors from all disciplines that pertain to the study of communications. To better achieve its purpose, most issues of SEARCH will be devoted to specific topics (although occasional issues of separate and unrelated papers may also be published).

Editorial Policy

The policy of one topic per issue means that all of the articles to appear in a given issue are commissioned, or come as a result of a 'call for papers' on a particular subject. Each issue is entrusted to an Issue Editor whose plans for the issue (contents, participants, etc.) are subject to the approval of the Editor-in-Chief and his/her associates/staff. Unsolicited manuscripts for consideration for the 'Singles' issue should be sent in duplicate in the SEARCH style (see 'Instructions for Authors' available on the journal website, <http://search.taylors.edu.my>) to the Editor-in-Chief.

Review Policy

All contributions shall be subject to review by two experts in the field. The Board of Editors shall do its best to ensure a quick review process.

Frequency

Two issues per year: March and September
